PARR TELLS PLANS FOR FORD FACTORY

INTERESTING composite photograph of the activities of King George, British ruler who lies critically ill in Buckingham palace, London. Snapshots and portraits taken during his life from early childhood to the present day make up this kaleidoscopic picture.

AUTO PLANT AGREEMENT DISCUSSED

Fred D. Parr of the Parr Terminal corporation appeared before the council last night and told of his recent trip east, of his visit to the Ford Motor company, and the visits he paid to a large number of industrial heads of the east.

The Ford officials told Parr they did not see why anyone had the right to question them as to their integrity in locating an assembly plant at Richmond, as the company had never bought a piece of land for speculation, nor had they ever acquired a tract that had not been used for the purpose it was purchased for, except in some rare instances where an attempt had been made to sell land for speculation.

On Large Scale
Parr said that the Ford officials had the kindest of feelings for this city, and he had reached the conclusion from his talks with them that the plant to be erected (Continued on Page 6)

ANXIETY FOR RULER GROWS AS REPORTS TELL DECLINE

LONDON, Dec. 18.—(U.P.)—There has been no change in King George's condition, said the morning bulletin, the United Press was informed / Buckingham Palace at 1:20 a. m. today. It was said the king had "had some sleep."

King George's condition was less satisfactory last night, according to an official bulletin which was more discouraging than any report issued at Buckingham palace during the last few days.

The king spent a "restless" afternoon and the progress recently noted has not been continued during the last few hours.

It was understood the ray therapy treatments which have been given the king during the last three days were continued last night in an effort to aid him in regaining strength. The treatment has the effect of strong sunlight, was considered beneficial in aiding his Majesty to recover from last week's operation to drain poison from the chest.

The night bulletin caused renewed anxiety throughout the nation after a day of growing hope. The announcements Sunday had indicated improvement and said the king enjoyed "natural sleep" Sunday night.

Members of the government decided last night to remain in England during the Christmas holidays giving up the customary vacations on the continent because of the king's illness.

CITY ASKED TO PAVE STREETS

A petition from property owners was filed with the city council at its meeting last night asking for the improvement of a number of streets in the northern section of the city.

A pavement consisting of a 4 inch broken rock cushion with 3 inches of asphaltic concrete on top, and a Durite concrete surface of 2 inches is asked for.

The streets asked to be improved are Rheem, Lowell, Dunn, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-eighth, Twentieth, Thirty-second, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-sixth streets, all east of Twenty-third.

The petition was referred to the street committee for two weeks.

Ship Graveyard Of Benicia Gone

MARTINEZ, Dec. 17.—The mud flats of Benicia, long the resting place of the Shipping Board carriers, are now barren of any activity.

During the last week, Havisdale and Smith-Rice barges dragged off the flats the last five ships of the former fleet. When the ships arrived in deep water, they were towed to the Alameda and Oakland works of the General Engineering company where several of them will be re-engined and prepared for sea service under private ownership.

City Council In Heated Row Over Question

The ghost of the famous El Cerrito alleged bribery case reared its head at the meeting of the El Cerrito council last night.

The matter was brought to the attention of the council by attorney William F. Huber who stated in a communication that there was a movement on foot to revive the plan to install electroliners along San Pablo avenue but before any action was taken he thought that Phil Lee and C. W. Zimmerman should make a report on Mr. Green's recent scheme of street lighting, which involved $975 in the recent "bribery" case. After the communication was read Huber took the floor and stated that while the city provided protection for streets and fire, he thought action should be taken to prevent graft in municipal government. He charged that Lee was responsible for the circulation of the rumors that there was corruption in municipal affairs.

Huber also made the statement that he believed that Lee was more influenced by fear than virtue in refusing to accept the money he claimed and been sent (Continued on Page 5)

Action Postponed On Wharf Painting

In the consideration of bids for the painting of wharf No. 1, wharf No. 2, and the city natatorium, the council last evening upheld City Manager J. A. McVittie in refusing to consider any bids from painters outside of the city, maintaining that if the work was done by local contractors the money would be paid to local men, and be spent in Richmond.

For the painting and cleaning of the natatorium the contract was awarded to J. G. Burns for $2200. The other bidders were: Lambie and Lambie $2250; J. J. Burdon & Son, $3100; Zeb Knott, $3320.

The bids for painting of wharf No. 1, and wharf No. 2, were laid over for future consideration. The bids received were as follows:

Wharf No. 1 and warehouse—Lambie and Lambie $2920; J. J. Burdon & Son $3200; Zeb Knott, $3620.

Citizens Petitions Approve New Cutoff

MARTINEZ, Dec. 17.—Expressing approval of the board of supervisors in evincing intention of building a cut-off highway from the Tank Farm hill to the extension of Tenth street, Richmond, petitions signed by 1200 residents of Richmond were presented to the board today.

The petitions offset one signed by 400 residents of San Pablo protesting the projected highway on the ground that it would impose an unnecessary tax burden and destroy the usefulness of a tract that can be devoted to industrial purposes. The proposed highway will be one mile in length. It will afford a direct route from the north into Richmond.

3 Air Mail Beacons Of County Started

MARTINEZ, Dec. 17.—Radio beacons located at Nichols, Walnut Creek and Danville were placed in operation last night. The beacons were installed by the government and will be operated by it.

With the three Contra Costa night guides now in operation, the California section of the transcontinental course is marked from Danville to Blue Canyon near Colfax, according to the department of commerce headquarters at the Concord flying field.

By Jan. 1 it is expected that the beacon service from Blue Canyon to the Contra Costa county will be in operation. The beacons, installed in Contra Costa county will serve as guides for the north and south travel as well as for east and west bound travel, flyers declare. While the new beacons are not as powerful as the Mt. Diablo light installed by the Standard Oil company, they are visible for many miles and afford a continuous lighted airway.

Wrong Top Delays Start Of Bus Line

A short delay in the starting with the factory and was advised of a bus service for the East Richmond district has been encountered by Edward Lucas, head of the Richmond Transit company, according to an announcement yesterday.

Lucas had planned inaugurating the service last Saturday. The bus arrived as scheduled, but the wrong top for the vehicle was sent from the factory he stated. He immediately communicated with the factory and was advised that the error had been noted and that the right top was now on its way. He stated that he expected to have the transportation service in operation before the holidays.

Commutation tickets and schedules for the service have already been printed, he declared. Everything is in readiness to begin operation as soon as the top arrives.

PARAGUAY IN WAR MOVES

ASUNCION, Paraguay Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—The government today informed American Secretary of State Kellogg of Paraguay's desire to arbitrate the Gran Chaco boundary line dispute with Bolivia.

Accepting the Pan-American conference's invitation to submit the controversy to arbitration, foreign minister Gerónimo Zubizarreta transmitted a note to Secretary Kellogg in Washington explaining the Paraguayan position in the dispute, which has resulted in a number of military skirmishes in the Gran Chaco territory.

Meanwhile, the preparations for war which were started Sunday with a decree for mobilization of the army, were continued vigorously. Patriotic demonstrations started by news of attacks on Paraguayan forts continued as citizens offered their services to the government.

There were no definite reports of casualties in the "bloody" fighting over the Gran Chaco forts.

The general decree of mobilization, calling to arms all reservists between the ages of 18 and 29, aroused martial excitement throughout the nation.

INQUEST IN SLAYING OF WOMAN HELD

That Mrs. Lucille Howson met her death from hemorrhage due to a throat cut inflicted by Robert Jackson with murderous intent, was the verdict of a coroner's jury here last night.

Mrs. Howson was slain Nov. 9, near Winchester. Robert Jackson was captured by the Richmond police three days after the crime. He pleaded guilty to the killing in the superior court at Martinez and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Capt. L. E. Jones of the Richmond police force told the jury of the finding of the body and the confession made by Jackson. H. E. Howson, husband of the slain woman testified and Dr. U. S. Abbott told of the nature of the wounds that caused the woman's death. Coroner Aubrey Wilson was in charge of the inquest.

El Cerrito To Ask Extension Of Bus Service

El Cerrito will make an effort to have the Key System Transit company extend its bus line that runs from Berkeley to the Sunset cemetery to take in Fairmont avenue as far as San Pablo avenue.

At the meeting of the city council last night the city clerk was instructed to communicate with the traction company, and state the desire of the city.

CHANDLER ILL

DEATH FARM BONES FOUND

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—Small bones found on the Northcott chicken ranch near Riverside will be given to anatomists and structural experts in the hope that they can rebuild the skeletons of the boys assertedly killed by Gordon Stewart Northcott, the district attorney's office announced today.

Prosecutors believe such skeletons would be most damaging evidence in the youth's approaching trials on charges of slaying four boys.

While the state claims the bones to be human remains, Northcott has contended that they are those of chickens and small animals.

A. G. Reynolds Dies Suddenly

Funeral arrangements for Allen G. Reynolds, 57, 275 Balra drive, El Cerrito, are pending in the hands of Wilson and Kratzer.

Reynolds passed away at his home last night following a short illness. He was a native of Pennsylvania and had lived in El Cerrito five years and in the state 10 years. He was an auto mechanic.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Reynolds, a son James Reynolds and a brother Samuel Reynolds of Ill. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge of Park Rapids, Mich.

Service Station Permit Requested

The application of C. E. Bennett for permission to erect a service station at Castro and Standard avenues, was referred to the city planning commission by the council at its meeting last evening.

El Cerrito Council Vote In Question

Whether or not El Cerrito has a city attorney is a moot question.

Last night at the meeting of the council of the county line town, Peter Larsen, councilman, made a motion that the office of city attorney be declared vacant. This was seconded by Ralph Beck.

There were four members of the council present and when the roll was called Larsen and Beck voted "aye", Ernest O'Brien "No", Phil Lee refused to vote, C. W. Zimmerman was absent.

This left the vote with two in favor of the motion and one against.

No announcement was made by the mayor as to the result of the vote and citizens present are wondering just what the status of the city attorney is.

Richmond Pair Arrested On Drunk Charge

John Smalley and Harry Doren, of Richmond, will face Police Judge J. F. Plank in El Cerrito tomorrow night on charges of intoxication. Smalley will also appear before Judge Plank Dec. 26 to answer to a charge of reckless driving.

The two were arrested late Saturday night by Traffic Officer Howard Thullen and were lodged in the city jail. They were released on $25 bail Sunday by Judge Plank.

Smalley was originally charged with driving while drunk but the charges were reduced to intoxication and reckless driving.

DEATH JURY ASKS SIGN

Placing of a boulevard stop sign at the intersection of the state highway and the Franklin road near Pinole was recommended by a coroner's jury last night at an inquest into the death of Naboru Hayashi, 25, 456 Gualarte avenue, Richmond. The jury found that Hayashi had died from the effects of injuries suffered in an automobile accident.

Hayashi, with T. Hennel of Danville collided with a Pioneer stage driven by Forest Fox of Berkeley at the intersection of the highways a week ago. Hayashi was taken to a local hospital where he died.

Coroner Aubrey Wilson conducted the inquest.

Petitioners To Learn Cost Of New Light Plan

In order that each property owner who has petitioned the city council for the installation of electroliners on the different streets of the city, may know the cost of installation, and the cost of maintenance, City Clerk A. C. Paris will write each signer a letter stating the facts, and then asking if he desires the work to proceed.

This was the action taken at the meeting of the council last night on the motion of Councilman Elmer A. Martin, who stated he thought the property owners should be fully informed before any steps are taken to proceed with the proposed work.

Petitions have been filed for electroliners on Ninth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Twentieth.

MOTHER THINKS DOLE FLIER ALIVE

HAYWARD, Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—Mother of two aviators who were killed when their small monoplane fell in a tail spin between Oakland and Honolulu met here today and one told the other of their sons' brave farewells.

Mrs. Louise Erwin, mother of William P. Erwin, one of America's most noted pilots, chose the twenty-first anniversary of the first airplane flight to visit Oakland airport where her son was last seen alive.

As she stepped from the train here on the way from Pawhuska, Okla., to the airport she was embraced by Mrs. Florence Eichwald, whose son Alvin was navigator of the plane and sent the distress call during the tail spin that shocked a nation.

"Oh my dear, my dear, I'm so glad you are here," Mrs. Erwin greeted Mrs. Eichwald and together they spoke thought that they had borne in silence. Mrs. Erwin, expressed certainty that her son, an ace of the United States aviation service in the world was still alive.

Mother Still Hopes
"People might think I was crazy," she told Mrs. Eichwald. "He's been gone 14 months now. But I feel he is still alive. In his last letter—it was 16 pages long—he said 'under God's protection I will make it' and I feel he was picked up by some foreign gun boat or something like that and has not been able to communicate with me."

Together the two mothers went to Oakland airport, a few miles from here, and arm in arm they went to the spot where Bill Erwin had asked that newspapermen advise his parents and wife that everything would be all right and Eichwald had kissed his mother farewell. Two months later, Mrs. Erwin became a grandmother and she said the infant, christened "Bill," had brought her greatest consolation.

Erwin, along the "Dallas Snail," on a flight of mercy when he left here on the fatal journey. He had started in the Dole flight on August 17, 1927, but was forced to return when the fabric of his fuselage tore just past the Golden Gate. Two days later he set out again for Honolulu, but that time not for money or glory. His sole object when he and Eichwald were a cheerful goodbye and "good into the air was to locate the Golden Eagle and the Miss Doran, two planes that started the Dole flight which, with their occupants, four men and a woman, have never been found.

That night, six hundred miles from the California coast, after a steady flow of messages filled with humor and wit, Eichwald sent the never to be forgotten call for help.

"We are in a tail spin," Eichwald flashed out. "We came out of it all right—SOS—we are in another."

That was all.

Willie Fisher Wins Acquittal

Willie Fisher, 18, of Oakland who is charged to have been responsible for the destruction of the Fairmont school in El Cerrito by fire several years ago, was freed on two charges in an Oakland court yesterday.

A jury in the superior court found him innocent of arson and burglary counts growing out of a fire that partially destroyed a building at Thirtieth and Madison streets in Oakland, Aug. 2.

The jury was out from 11 a. m. to 2:30 p. m., when it returned its verdict of "not guilty" to Superior Judge Fred V. Wood of Oakland.

What will be done with the youth, who according to the police has confessed to setting $3,000 worth of fires in the Bay district, is the problem faced by District Attorney Earl Warren of Oakland. Officials at the Sonoma county home for the feeble minded declared that they did not want the youth. At the same time Warren wanted to place him in some sort of custody that will prevent him from continuing his "fire-bug" activities.

Robbery Charge Faced By White Wife Of Indian

ARKANSAS CITY, Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—The case of the State of Kansas against Mrs. Morris Wheeler, beautiful white wife of one of the most prominent members of the Osage tribe of Indians, and her brother, Johnnie Williams, in which it is alleged the youth hijacked a motor party of which his sister was a member, with her consent and co-operation, has been set over for trial at the spring term of the Crowley county district court.

The case, second only to the famous "Osage Murders" in the amount of interest attracted among the people of the "richest tribe in the world," has caused a near civil war. The hijacking took place on the night of July 12 last when a party of five Osage women, driving along a lonely road east of this city, was held up by a masked robber. The women saved most of their jewelry, but one ring, valued at $1200 belonging to Mrs. Edna Pomondon, owner and driver of the auto, was taken. Shortly afterward a warrant was sworn out for Mrs. Wheeler and her brother, charging that Williams was the actual bandit and that his sister aided him in planning the robbery.

One of the state's star-witnesses, Mrs. J. E. Conner, is about to become a mother, and for that reason and with the consent of the court, the case has been postponed. Meanwhile Mrs. Wheeler and her brother are at liberty on bonds signed by her husband, an Osage rancher, and his relatives, all rich members of the tribe.

Beware of Bachelors

by Arline de Haas

Copyright 1928, Warner Bros. Pictures Inc. "BEWARE OF BACHELORS," with an All-Star Cast, is a Warner Bros. picture of this novel.

SYNOPSIS

Dr. Davis and his wife, May, have been quarreling. Davis is jealous of Berenger de Brie, a perfume manufacturer, and May is jealous of Myra Pfeffer, an artist. They have just made up when Davis receives a supposedly professional call and sends himself delegated to take Myra home from a party because she pretends illness. On opening her apartment door he thoughtlessly pockets the key. May, becoming suspicious, follows him. Angry, she gets Berenger and they go to a cabaret. Davis finally locates May, and once more they are reconciled. They start for home only to find Myra demanding her key. May leaves, going to the Ritze Hotel.

"You get out of here quick, and never I catch you meddling in my affairs again there's going to be trouble." He watched the effect of his words on Myra.

The girl stared at him in amazement. "Well, I must say, Dr. Davis," she began coquely.

"I don't care what you must say," Davis retorted. "You get out and mighty quick."

"Well, you're certainly no gentleman," Myra jumped out of the car and stamped her foot.

"Will you kindly get out of my sight before I forget what little manner I have left?" Davis threatened.

"I certainly shall," Myra turned on her heel and went flying up the street.

"Well, that's that," Davis snorted. He got into his car and went rolling slowly over the asphalt pavement.

Worldly May really carry out her threats, he wondered. Had she actually meant that she would try to get a divorce? The whole thing was absurd. He'd have to talk her out of it in some way. Did she really mean to go to the Ritze or was that just a gesture—a gesture to make him angry? Surely May couldn't have meant it. She'd probably be home waiting for him. Oh, there'd be another quarrel, no doubt, but he'd try to make it up in some way.

The thought of May at home sex him bowling along through the empty streets. At the corner of the apartment house he turned off and ran the car around into the garage. So certain he was that everything would be all right that he did not ask the garage man whether his wife had brought her car in or not. He jumped out and hurried to the house as quickly as possible.

In the elevator he turned to the boy. "Has Mrs. Davis come in?" he questioned.

"Yes, sir," the boy informed him. "She come in, but she's gone out again."

"Gone out again?" Davis stopped suddenly. No use letting the boy know anything about this. "Oh, yes, I phoned her—have to be out on a case tonight myself."

"Yes, sir," the boy stopped the car and let the doctor out at his floor.

Davis hurried down the hallway and into his apartment. He went on into the bedroom. He could see the signs of May's hurried departure. Doors open, the light still on, some clothes thrown across a chair-back, her toilet articles missing from the dresser. He groaned.

Finally he went into the living room, switched on the main light there and looked about. He paused, scratching his head meditatively. What to do now? May had evidently carried out her threat. He frowned. Then he went over and poured out a large drink of Scotch from the decanter on the console table. He lit a cigarette and dozed the liquor and perched himself on the arm of the lounge, thinking. Suddenly he jumped up, switched on the cigarette, re-filled the flask, returned to the bedroom and began throwing his pajamas

NORMA SHOWN IN LOVE, HATE DRAMA

"The Woman Disputed" the love and hate drama of an outcast woman's redemption, brings Norma Talmadge to the screen of the California Theater which will end its engagement tonight in what is said to be the greatest role of her career.

This United Artists picture is based on the sensational stage play of the same name by Denison Clift. The story, as translated to the screen by C. Gardner Sullivan.

A character of unusual strength and fascination is the way critics have described Mary Ann Wagner, the heroine of the piece, the part played by Miss Talmadge. Mary Ann's life is the drama of reformation, the romance of boundless love, and conflict between self and sacrifice.

Two men, inseparable friends, fall in love with Mary Ann. Then comes war and the rivals in love find themselves rivals in war. Misunderstandings destroy the friendship of years, and a just for vengeance springs up in its place. Suddenly she finds herself face to face with the supreme test: she must sacrifice either honor or country. A widely heralded dramatic climax on the stage, its emotional intensity and sweep are said to have been heightened in the film play as directed by Henry King and Sam Taylor.

Residents of Sawtelle, the site of a World War soldier's home, where the war sequence was filmed, were amazed at the technical fidelity of the military scenes.

The players appearing in support of Miss Talmadge in "The Woman Disputed" are well known to picture-goers.

Players Of Note Appear In Latest Billie Dove Film

One of the most notable and balanced supporting casts ever used in a First National film of former support: beautiful Billie Dove in her latest starring picture, "The Yellow Lily" now playing at the Richmond theater.

In the principal roles alone, 11 notable players appear. But there has been no distinction made between minor and major roles in the selection of players.

Clive Brook plays opposite Miss Dove in the play, which is an adaptation of Lajos Biro's play of the same name. Gusav von Seyfert has one of the best opportunities of his career as a Mephistopheles-like, sardonic valct of the hero.

Jane Winton, wearing a blonde wig, portrays a notorious actress of Budapest and sweetheart of the hero, Nicholas Soussafin enacts an effective and very dramatic role as the heroine's brother. Marc MacDermott and Bodil Rosing are the Hungarian Archduke and Archduchess respectively. Charles Puffy plays a comedy role as mayor of a small mountain town in Hungary.

Other colorful and important roles are enacted by Paul Vincent, Lucian Prival, John Westwood and Gus Partos.

"The Yellow Lily" was adapted from the famous play by Lajos Biro, and it deals with love and intrigue in Hungary. Alexander Korda directed the picture.

Highway bond issues totalling $1,159-$36,000 have been voted in various states in the past twelve years.

FAST CONTEST THRILLS FANS

The Ben Malik cagers virtually clinched the championship of the Richmond basketball league last night by defeating the strong Me-Rackin outfit 20 to 18 in a fast game at the junior high school gymnasium. There is no chance of any other team in the league winning the title unless the Malik Scary, 3b, men lost the next three games. If this is the case they will be tied for the title with Me-Rackin's providing they win all their games. Malik's team has not lost a game this year.

It was anybody's game from the start to finish. The seventh son of a seventh son could not have foretold the end of the contest when the first quarter had started. Both teams were evenly matched and hotly disputed every point in the contest. It was one game in a million.

A long shot in the fourth canto saved the Malik quintet and brought victory to their standards. Huzefka starred for the Malik and Gillians for Me-Rackin outfits. Both men made seven points.

The entertainment was provided by the Mastercraft Roadsters who lost to the Santa Fe Indians 17 to 4. The score explains the game.

The lineups:

Harmful.. in any motor Ruinous.. in the newer ones

this coke-like carbon from burned oil

Abrasive! Flint carbon from ordinary oil chips off and grinds through moving parts—wearing away your motor. It will scratch bearing metal under a finger's pressure.

Older motors might find room for a handful of coke-like carbon. There is but a knife blade of "clearance" in our fine new engines—no room for carbon.

AT THE time on top a piston would bump the cylinder head—in some of the new motors. No clearance, no room for carbon deposits.

You've seen how carbon forms in layers, how it has to be scraped from spark plugs, valves, pistons. Most of it comes from burned oil. And the surprising thing is that many high priced oils form great quantities of flint-carbon.

It is shameful to let a fine new motor knock and strain. To let it choke up with hard carbon that flakes off, holds valves open and wastes power. To let abrasive chips grind like grit through every bearing!

And you need not use a carbon-forming lubricant. There's an improved oil, ideal—almost a necessity—for modern engines.

Burns to soft soot only

Not much oil burns in a good motor—but there's always enough to form carbon. Shell Motor Oil, the result of a new and exact refining process, forms 2-3 less carbon than even the costliest oils you can buy. The little it does form is only soft soot that blows away through the exhaust.

It is a finer lubricant, so carefully vacuum refined that none of its sturdy body is lost. Shell Motor Oil can truly "add thousands of miles to the life of your car." At yellow and red signs, everywhere convenient.

SHELL MOTOR OIL

Shell Gift Scrip in books of five, ten and twenty dollar value is on sale at all Shell company operated stations and at many Shell dealers. An ideal gift for any one who drives a car. Ask about it when you buy gasoline or oil.

FORD PLANT PLANS TOLD COUNCIL BY FRED PARR

In speaking of the heads of other industries he had visited while in the east Parr stated that every one of them was in a receptive mood and are watching developments on the Pacific Coast with a great deal of interest.

During his eastern trip Parr visited 14 cities, and made an average of four industry visits per day. It is his idea that in order to secure industries you must visit the plants and sell the heads of the concerns.

New Harmonizer

One very important statement of Parr was to the effect that the Ford company has now reached a production of 6000 cars a day. The company has also invented a harmonizer that is now being placed on the engine that will do away with vibration at all speeds. On cars already sold the harmonizer can be installed for $7.65.

Parr then took up in detail the conditions surrounding the Ford factory agreement and spoke as follows:

"It is only right that the citizens of Richmond should have a report on the present status of the arrangements under which the Ford Motor company is to establish one of its standard assembling plants at Richmond.

"The agreement of Dec. 17, 1926 between the Ford Motor company and Parr Terminal company which is the agreement providing for the sale of some 62 acres of land by the Parr Terminal company to the Ford Motor company, contains the following conditions:

"First requirement: the land is to be bulkheaded and filled to an elevation of plus 12 feet.

"Present status: This bulkheading and filling has been completed.

"Second requirement: A channel shall be dredged 200 feet wide and 30 feet deep from the navigable waters of the bay of San Francisco to the inner harbor with the necessary turning basins and a channel 200 feet wide and 32 feet deep along a 300 foot strip of land lying immediately south of the U. S. Bulkhead line and being a part of state tide land lots 3 and 4.

"Present status: This dredging has been completed.

"Third requirement: The street and sewer work including the paving of Tenth street and extension and paving of Fourteenth street and the building and paving of Hall avenue, shall be completed.

"Present status: A combination storm and sanitary sewer which will be the main outfall sewer for the City of Richmond will be constructed down Tenth street. The plans and specifications are now being prepared and the City engineer advises me that they should be completed within three or four months. This will be handled under an assessment district and this unit of a combination storm and sanitary sewer will be the first portion to be installed. This work should be completed within 12 months from the time that the plans and specifications are approved by the city council.

To Be Met Soon

"The Ford Motor company will be satisfied that we have fulfilled the requirements, so far as the obligation to construct a sewer is concerned, when the plans and specifications have been approved and the assessment district has been created so that it will be a certainty that the storm and sanitary sewer will be installed and it will not be necessary to wait until the job has been completed in order to comply with the requirements in the agreement between the Parr Terminal company and the Ford Motor company. It is therefore reasonable to suppose that this requirement will have been met by May 1, 1929.

"Streets: The city council has adopted a resolution authorizing the filling of the westerly 45 feet of Tenth street from the north line of Potrero avenue to the northerly levee surrounding the lands which have been filled for the Ford Motor company. This work is now under way and substantially 30 percent completed. This should be finished not later than Jan. 15, 1929.

"Sufficient clay has been dredged from the channel and deposited on the extension of Tenth street from the levee above mentioned to the southerly end of Tenth street to form a foundation for the material that will be used in the construction of a permanent street.

Temporary Street

"It will be necessary to either put in a temporary street which will meet the requirements for two or three years and then have a permanent street constructed, or arrangements can be made to put in the permanent street in the first instance. If a temporary street is constructed and a permanent street is put in at a later date, it will be necessary for the city to provide funds for maintaining the street during the two or three years in which the street is allowed to settle pending the time the permanent street is to be constructed. It therefore becomes a question of policy on the part of the city as to whether it wants to put in the permanent street at this time, having the entire expense taken care of by an assessment district or whether an assessment should be put on for the temporary street and a second assessment put on for the permanent street and in the meantime have the city provide the necessary maintenance costs on the temporary street.

"In discussing this matter with the Ford Motor company during the early part of this month, I gained the impression that they would be thoroughly satisfied if a roadway and sidewalk were constructed the full length of Tenth street, so as to make their property easily accessible to all kinds of vehicular traffic and pedestrians. In other words, it is my opinion that it will not be necessary for the city of Richmond to plan on constructing the street covering the extension of Fourteenth street nor the street along Hall avenue until a later date.

Explanation Required

"It will be necessary, however, for the city to write a letter to the Ford Motor company, explaining the location and type of street to be constructed along Tenth street and asking that the obligation to construct the streets on Fourteenth street and Hall avenue be deferred to a later date. This letter should be addressed to J. Crawford, assistant to the president, with a plan showing the proposed street arrangement and this plan should have the approval of the city council and the Parr terminal company before submitting it to the Ford Motor company.

"City Engineer E. A. Hoffman believes that it will take about three months to prepare the plans and specifications for the proposed extension of Tenth street after the authorization has been given by the city council for him to proceed with this work.

"All of the above work will be handled under an assessment district which can be created during the time the plans and specifications are being prepared so that the plans, specifications and assessment district will be ready for approval by the city council about the first of April, 1929, if authorization is given by the city council during this month to proceed with the work.

"The work, according to Hoffman, should be completed within six months after the contract is awarded.

"If the plans, specifications and assessment district are approved on April 1, the work should be completed by Sept. 1, 1929. This would comply with the final requirements under the arrangement with the Ford Motor company and they would therefore be in position to commence the construction of their plant during the fall of 1929.

Rail Connections

"Fourth requirement: The Southern Pacific company and the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway company are to construct main lead tracks of standard gauge from their main lines to serve the property acquired by the Ford Motor company together with storage yards for a minimum of 150 cars on lands in the vicinity of the Ford site and the railroad companies are to enter into an agreement for the joint operation of these tracks so far as concerns the carriage of freight and cargo of the Ford Motor company. If, however, all necessary rights of way for the said railroad tracks shall have been procured and agreements have been entered into to allow the construction and laying of the railroad tracks to the plant of the Ford Motor company and agreements have been entered into for the joint operation of said tracks so far as the interests of the Ford Motor company are concerned, then the requirements for the construction of railroad tracks and the joint operation as herein outlined, shall be considered to have been complied with.

"Present status: All rights of way for the construction of the railroad tracks have been acquired by the railroad companies together with the necessary lands for the car storage yard. The railroad companies have entered into an agreement with the Ford Motor company by which they agree to construct the necessary railroad tracks including the car storage yard to meet the requirements of the Ford Motor company. They have also agreed to construct the tracks upon notice from the Ford Motor company that it desires to proceed with the construction of its plant and they have also agreed to a joint operation as required by the Ford Motor company.

"All of the above conditions are to be complied with prior to the time that the Ford Motor company is called upon to make any move in connection with the construct-

"When all of the above conditions of its plant. The Ford Motor company has definitely committed itself to the building of one of its standard assembling plants on the lands acquired, within a reasonable time after the requirements specified by it, have been complied with.

"The only thing yet to be taken care of before the Ford Motor company will be in position to commence the construction of its plant are the sewer and the streets.

"The requirements for the sewer is now being satisfactorily met, therefore it need not be given any further consideration. A number of tentative plans have been suggested for the constructing of the streets and on my visit to the Ford plant during the early part of this month, the whole matter was fully discussed.

Firm Committed

"From the above statements you will observe that the Ford Motor company has definitely committed itself to the building of one of its standard assembling plants on the lands acquired, within a reasonable time after the requirements specified by it, have been complied with.

"The only thing yet to be taken care of before the Ford Motor company will be in position to commence the construction of its plant are the sewer and the streets.

"The requirements for the sewer is now being satisfactorily met, therefore it need not be given any further consideration. A number of tentative plans have been suggested for the constructing of the streets and on my visit to the Ford plant during the early part of this month, the whole matter was fully discussed.

Watch Wheels Travel Far In Course Of Year

One dollar collected every time your watch ticks would pile up each year a fortune amounting roughly to $157,680,000. The balance wheel of your watch travels 4,836 miles in a year. J. P. Potter, vice president in charge of operations for the Key System Transit company, has it all figured out. The watches of the Key System trainmen must be right to the tick. Potter says.

"Accurate timepieces should not vary more than 150 ticks in the course of a week," Potter declares. "The balance wheel should not vary more than 30 feet in the distance it travels to and fro during that time. It is an interesting fact that an accurate watch will tick 18,000 times each hour or 432,000 times each day. The balance wheel will travel about one and ninety-six one hundredths inches with each beat, which is thirteen and one quarter miles every 24 hours, or 4,836 miles in a year."

MODERN OILER WILL ARRIVE HERE SOON

What is said to be the largest and most modern tanker in the Standard Oil fleet will dock at the Richmond wharves within a short time. The new vessel was constructed at Kell Germany and will be known as the "California Standard." The craft has a capacity of 130,500 barrels of oil and can cruise for 100 days.

This will be the twenty-third vessel to be added to the Standard Oil fleet. Provisions for carrying a package cargo have been made. The crew quarters have been so arranged that they will be comfortable in any climate.

Due to its improved design, the Standard will be the company's most economical operated craft.

The company is planning another large tanker to be built in an American yard. Construction of the California Standard supplanted plans for the Dieselizing of the tanker District of Columbia, purchased from the Shipping Board two years ago.

REPUBLIC OF CHINA IN DISCARD

PEKING, Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—The Chinese Republic, which was founded in 1911, with world-acclaim, has now been completely scrapped. Few foreigners even in China, realize how thoroughly the job has been done. China today is ruled by a party autocracy and obviously there is no intention of restoring a President, a Parliament, or the old Republican constitution.

In the new National government however, which is really a Kuomintang government (Nationalist Party) sympathetic observers find much greater hope for an eventual stable government than at any time since the Manchus abdicated. The Kuomintang leaders appear to be striving toward setting up an aristocracy in China to rule the country until such time as the common people shall be fitted for self-rule.

There is no pretense of representative government in China today. Kuomintang leaders talk much about the people, but in the future, not in the present sense. Certainly they appear to be facing facts much more directly than the original revolutionists who established the republic in 1911.

Largely Illiterate

Dr. Sun Yat-sen and his followers, originally believed that the Chinese people could take up representative government just like that in the United States or the most progressive European countries. This belief made a farce of the government of the republic for many years. The Chinese people knew nothing about self-government, except in an extremely local sense. More than 90 percent of them cannot read or write their own language or any other.

After repeated failures, Dr. Sun turned to the Soviet Government of Russia as a possible solution for China. He died before discovering his mistake, but his followers have repudiated Communism even more emphatically than they did western representative government. Unless there is a complete change of present plans, China will become neither a Republic nor a Communist state for generations.

The only person who has any say in the Nationalist Government at Nanking are members of the Kuomintang and the warlords. Some of the warlords are also members of the Kuomintang, including Marshal Feng Yu-shang, Yen Hsi-shan, Li Tsung-jen and Chiang Kai-shek. The Kuomintang is being very careful how it enlists members. All candidates must pass examinations showing acquaintance with all types of government and with the principles laid down by Sun Yat-sen in the Nationalist pattern constitution.

No Chinese Constitution. The Kuomintang and also the Nationalist Government are ruled by the Central Executive committee of 35 members, which is elected by a party congress held once each month, representing members of the Kuomintang both in China and in foreign countries. This central executive committee names the heads of the nine Nationalist ministries and of the five boards, as well as the military council which is supposed to control the armies.

At the present time there is no constitution in China as the permanent constitution of the Republic promulgated in 1923, has been scrapped. The Kuomintang is at work on a provisional constitution which is expected to serve during the present period of "political transition."

telage. Dr. Sun declared that the Chinese revolution must be divided into three periods, those of revolution, education and representative government. Many Kuomintang leaders believe that the revolutionary period is nearing an end, and that the educational period will occupy the attention of the party for many years to come.

The hope of China today obviously lies in the Kuomintang. This party continues even if the Nationalist Government should be overthrown. The party has split before and may split again. There may be rebellions by various warlords unsympathetic with the Kuomintang ideals which will result in civil wars. But the nucleus of the Kuomintang, which is the essence of Chinese Nationalism, will be very hard to destroy. This appears to be a permanent force, which may mean the eventual salvation of China.

Cane To Carry Rum Invented

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—The flask is by no means a modern invention. It was been brought out in Sweden where an old walking stick, holding a container for liquids was recently discovered at Norberg in the province of Westmanland.

The intricate cane, consisting of a metal tube with rich ornamentations in silver, boasts not only of a beverage flask, but a mirror and a snuff box as well. To prevent pilfering, the compartments are protected by intricate locks. The stick was made 50 years ago by a metal worker named Andersson for his personal use and is now in the possession of his son, Georg Andersson.

JUDGES STUDY ESSAYS OF CONTEST

Winners of the essay contest for the bond Union high school boys and girls will be announced on or before Dec. 30, according to an announcement made yesterday. The contest which has been conducted by the Parr-Richmond Terminal corporation on the subject: "The Value of Harbor and Industrial Development to Richmond," has closed. Cash prizes amounting to $75 will be awarded.

The judges, headed by Mayor Mattie A. Chandler and Superintendent of Schools Walter T. Helms and including Fred D. Parr, P. M. Sanford, E. B. Ball, Aubrey Wilson, C. S. Renwick, M. A. Hays, Ralph N. Bergen, G. E. Vining, are now making their selections.

Part after reading each of the several essays submitted by the students, each boy and girl, remarked:

"Richmond high school students have caught the vision of a greater harbor, a greater industrial area, a greater and finer Richmond."

"With the other judges of the contest I was deeply impressed with the care and thought and study and effort the boys and girls who submitted essays, put into their essays. To select the five winners is really a heavy task as they were all good and most far above the average the committee of judges expected."

"Richmond parents can be very proud of their sons and daughters. They will make splendid citizens of tomorrow. They are fully alive to the necessity of developing our harbor to its fullest capacity and know the value of the industrial development that will follow."

Following a meeting of the judges and the selection of some 15 of the best of the great number of articles submitted, the judges have been given copies of the 15 from which the winning five will be selected. That there could be no favoritism shown the essays have been submitted by numbers instead of by names of the authors. The originals are on file with the advertising department of the Parr-Richmond Terminal corporation. This was done at the suggestion of Superintendent of Schools Helms who said as a schoolman he did not wish to be influenced by a personal acquaintance with the student submitting the article. The other judges readily agreed. And so it is on this basis that the merits of the articles will be judged.

EXPEDITION TO VIEW ECLIPSE IN 1929

GREENWICH, Eng., Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—British scientists rapidly are preparing an expedition to observe the eclipse of the sun in 1929.

While they had only to travel a few miles to Giggleswick, Yorkshire, last year to witness the total eclipse, this year they have to go to Malaya.

The track of the 1929 eclipse cuts across the northernmost portion of Sumatra, the Malay peninsula, the southernmost portion of French Indo-China, and the Philippine Islands and ends in the Pacific ocean.

Col. Waley Cohen, a member of the expedition, has inspected the sites for two camps. These are situated at Alorstar, the capital of Kwah, and Patani, in southern Siam.

Already, the grounds of the observatory are crowded with equipment such as ladders and wooden shelters to protect the scientists from wind, rain and sun. In one corner, swathed in tarpaulins, is the telescope which Dr. J. Jackson, one of the leaders of the expedition, had had especially made for his own use. It is 21 feet in focal length, with an aperture of 7 inches. It will take plates 15 inches square and photograph an area of the sky three degrees in width and three degrees in depth. The astrophysical equatorial telescope used for the international photographic mapping of the skies, will also be taken. The advance party of the expedition sailed for Malaya, February 16.

NEWSPAPER POLICY

There are some who profess to believe that the newspapers of today are not up to the high standards set by such men as Greeley, Dana, Medill and Watterson and that as a result the power of the press is waning.

They forget that the editors mentioned worked in a day of "personal journalism" which after all is said and done is nothing but partisan, biased and prejudiced journalism, serving parties and political creeds. The power of the press or rather the influence it wields has not decreased, it has simply changed its course and is now exerting its influence in a more impartial manner.

The policy of the Record-Herald has been and will continue to be to support all civic measures of merit and to faithfully uphold the public interest. The Record-Herald has no pet hobbies to promote, and no special privileges to defend. Its publishers pledge loyal devotion to every cause which makes for a better city, a better state or a better nation.

The Record Herald strives to be a purveyor of news and when necessity arises an interpreter of that news. The day of the organ is passing rapidly and the publishers of the Record-Herald believe that this paper serves a constituency, that possesses culture, breadth of understanding and independence of thought and that more and more demand the paper that prints the history of each day, without favoring special theories or promoting special interests.

"What is best for public interest" has been the measuring stick for the columns of the Record-Herald and that will continue to be the measure and motive of the Record-Herald's decisions.

Dear Judie:

Are muffs really going to be carried this winter? If so what kind? By fur suits do you mean a fox scarf with large fox muffs? Do you consider fur hats bad for the hair? Are they not very hot and heavy?—Country Cousin.

Mercy no, not fox scarves and fox muffs—Fox scarves yes, but the "sets" referred to are usually cravats with tiny barrel or flat-envelope-like muffs sometimes decorated with a fur bow and sometimes so constructed that they serve as bag as well. Yes, muffs seem to have a promising future especially when they are fashioned of flat fur and matched to either cravat or hat or both.

Yours for Style,
JUDIE.

BEAUTY

My Dear Miss Lane:

How can I fill out the lines of my neck? My face is full enough and I don't think I'm too thin or otherwise, but by neck is scrawny and has ugly hollows.

Also my neck is much darker than my face (although I assure you I scrub it often with soap and water!) and I would like to know if there isn't some way I can make it lighter—Gus.

Perhaps you're a little too diligent in using the soap and water to scrub your neck. If the skin is undernourished and discolored, you could avoid the use of either soap or water and clean the neck with a cleansing cream such as you use for your face. Once or twice a week, clean the neck thoroughly and then wipe off every trace of the cream (using alcohol if necessary). After you are sure the skin is clean and has no oil left on it apply lemon juice as a bleach. Leave this on over night.

If you follow these instructions, the skin should be perceptibly paler in a few weeks time.

As to those hollows—are you sure you're not underweight? The best of skin food, applied most conscientiously, will not do much good if you don't weigh enough for your height. Try to add at least a few pounds and see if that does not help.

However, nightly use of a skin food (to be left on overnight after being patted in) will nourish the skin and make it soft and smooth.

Trouble Brought By Money Machine

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—James Chapman, 42, negro, made from $3 to $10 daily selling "black cat wish-bones" which were supposed to work miracles, cure the sick and bring the owners luck. But that wasn't enough. He sold a negro couple here a "money-making" machine which he said would turn out legal tender. He charged them only the $100 tax which he said the government levied for the privilege of manufacturing U. S. money. The machine consisted of two pieces of wood bolted together and contained five fresh official $1 bills. Now Chapman is under arrest on a warrant charging him with using the mails to defraud.

HOMEWORK FOR STUDENTS SCORED

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—Homework assignments for school children are immoral, Mrs. Marietta Johnson, founder of a kindergarten-to-college school at Fairhope, Ala., said in an address before the New Orleans Child conference here. Mrs. Johnson's school has no grades, no examinations and no assigned persons; but graduates have entered 20 standard colleges and none has failed.

Mrs. Johnson said, "all the standard schools do is get children ready—get first graders ready for the second grade, get each grade ready for the next; get graduates ready for something else. They want to guarantee he will be ready for something—and that is the business of a quack. That is partly the result of religion, partly the result of our industrial system."

"At our school we say instead that it is just as important to be four as it is to be 40, and there's no use getting ready for 40 when you're four. So all we do is meet the needs of the child, as an organism, at his present age."

"The time to learn is when you need to know. So, though we do give examinations—which everybody passes—in high school, we teach the children then what they need to know. If ever there is a time to know the multiplication table, it is when you need it for an examination problem. That is when we tell it to the children."

"It is normal for a child to come from school and forget his lessons until he goes to bed. If he has an assignment, he has to lose his sleep to get it, or have his mother get it—and he gets scolded if his mother gets it wrong. Therefore the fault is with the assignment. If it starts a wrong movement, and anything that starts a wrong movement is immoral."

"The problem of the school is not to make the child meet its standards but to meet the standards of the child's needs."

GOOD HEARTED MONEYLENDER DISCOVERED

PARIS, Dec. 17.—(U.P.)—Pittles Paul is what the business men of Paris call him but the police call him Paul, the Prince. On the records his name is Jean Paul Lefebvre and his profession is money lending.

Lefebvre is brusque and quick in his movements. The client without adequate security enters and explains faster than the postman's wheel used to come to Washington in shake hands with Theodore Roosevelt. If you have the security, you sign it over to Lefebvre, and he takes it if you refuse to pay him and his price is exactly three times the money he gives you, or 300 per cent interest.

But if you are a poet, a newspaper man, a writer of any sort, well that's different. The sharp angles of his Styloek manner round into a Bassano softness and he talks books and literary shop, offers you a drink and takes you back into his apartment. There he brings down a large book with a chased bolt and opens it to the title page where you read "Poems of Silver" by Jean Paul Lefebvre.

To poets his rates are two per cent, three percent, at most four percent. There are poets who have come and eaten with Paul, Prince Paul, meals and strong wine and good talk of songsters from Mistral to Verlaine.

Business men hate him. There is a case of a shopkeeper who gave as security for a loan of $1,500 francs, his shop, and his household belongings and signed a note agreeing to pay back 40,000 francs. The note fell due, the man did not have the money, and Paul sold him out. The wife and the children came to Lefebvre weeping, but Paul turned them out. Had the business man showed but one poem of his own composition, it would have been more effective than tears.
